

The Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Presents:

Soup & Substance Oct 29, 2014

Time: Noon to 1:00 PM

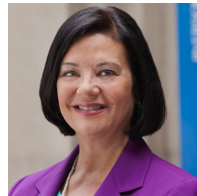

This is a series of noon hour moderated panel discussions. While enjoying a warm bowl of soup and refreshments, participants will engage panelists in an open conversation on a range of diversity related topics.

Dr. Denise O'Neil Green, Assistant Vice-President/Vice-Provost Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI), will moderate the series, which is free and open to the public.

Women's Ways of Leading

Tecumseh Auditorium - SCC 115
(Located in Oakham House)

Belenky's Women's Ways of Knowing, Clinton's Hard Choices, Dean's Women in Academic Leadership, Fey's Bossy Pants, and Sandberg's Lean In are all books that explore how women conceptualize, execute and challenge leadership norms. Though women represent the majority of students at the undergraduate level, they remain under-represented in academic leadership. The panelists will discuss how they lead in an arena where so few women are represented, underscoring their professional strategies and personal choices.

Marie Bountrogianni
Dean, The Chang School

Imogen Coe
Dean, Faculty of Science

Usha George
Dean, Faculty of Community Services

Madeleine Lefebvre
Chief Librarian

Heather Lane Vetere
Vice-Provost, Students

The Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion is committed to accessibility for persons with disabilities. Please contact Janine Willie in advance of the event if you have any particular accommodation requirements or dietary restrictions.

Janine Willie
Administrative Coordinator
Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion
416-979-5000 ext. 3243
equity@ryerson.ca

Everyone Makes a Mark

Soup and Substance is among the top 10 winners of the 11th Annual Innovations in Diversity Award.