

REPRESENT.

at Ryerson

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2013

Friday, March 8th

REGISTRATION: www.representryerson.eventbrite.ca
REPRESENT. on Twitter: #RyersonRepresent

International Women's Day boxed lunch, art show and panel discussion on representations of women in the media 11:30am - 1pm (welcome remarks 12pm, closing remarks 3pm) POD 250

IWD Human Library

Featuring diverse women and female-identified persons with inspiring personal histories

1:15pm - 2:50pm POD 250

Breakout Sessions:

- Diverse Bodies in the Media
Panel discussion 1:15pm - 2:50pm KHW 370 (Studio 3)
- Racialized and Indigenous Women Re-imagined in the Media
Workshop 1:15pm - 2:50pm JOR 06
- Gender, Voice and Respect in the Media: Social Change through Social Media
Workshop 1:15pm - 2:50pm 7th Floor Heaslip House

Social Change Through Alternative Media: Community Conversation and REPRESENT. Video Awards Presentation

Wendy Anderson - Actress, Filmmaker, Creator of a New Web-Series about a super-heroine who gets her powers when she enters menopause Topic: Using alternative media to create representation where there is none

Serafina Dawley - Social Media Manager - MUCH MTV Group, Spoken Word Artist
Topic: Social Media and Spoken Word as tools to effect positive change on gender equality issues

Lishai - Spoken Word Youth Program Facilitator, Spoken Word Artist
Topic: Media, Women and Politics - spoken word and talk back about female politicians in the media

YWCA Toronto Miss Media Mentorship Project - Presentation from project mentors about their media making and media literacy projects for young women in Toronto

6-9pm Atrium

Contact us: 416-979-5000 ext. 3243 or equity@ryerson.ca

RYERSON
UNIVERSITY

media
ACTION